

CONTRACTOR'S BID.

Newport Ind. April 7th. 1913

To the Board of Commissioners of the County of

Vermillion in the State of Indiana:

Pursuant to notice given in the Indianapolis Commercial and the Gary Herald.

two leading newspapers of general circulation, published in the City of Indianapolis in Marion County, in the State of Indiana, under date of

and that on the 7-14-21st day of Mch. 1913, the Board of Commissioners, of the County of in the State of Indiana, would receive bids for the building, constructing & completion of the Free Gravel Road in Eugene Township, in Vermillion County, State of Indiana, known as the Harry A. Porter Free Gravel Road, as petitioned for by Harry A. Porter, et al.

in Vermillion County, Indiana, and in accordance with the rules, plans and specifications now on file in the office of said County Auditor of Vermillion County, the undersigned makes the following bid: I will build, construct & complete the said Harry A. Porter Free gravel road in Eugene Township in said Vermillion County, State of Indiana, as petitioned for by Harry A. Porter, et al. & will furnish labor & materials necessary to properly complete the same, in accordance with, plans, profile, drawings, rules & specifications for the same on file in the office of the Auditor of said Vermillion County. & in accordance with the terms of the contract entered into with the Board of Commissioners of said Vermillion County, State of Indiana, for the construction of the same for the sum of $12150.

Respectfully submitted, Paul Thomas.