

CONTRACTOR'S BID.

Newport Ind. April 7th 1913.

To the Board of Commissioners of the County of Vermillion in the State of Indiana:

Pursuant to notice given in the Indianapolis Commercial and the Dana News, two leading newspapers of general circulation, published in the City of Indianapolis in Marion Co., State of Ind. County, in the State of Indiana, under date of March 6, 1913, and that on the 6th, 13th & 20th days of March, respectively 1913, the Board of Commissioners, of the County of Vermillion, in the State of Indiana, would receive bids for building construction of the Free Gravel Road, in Kelt Township, in Vermillion County, State of Indiana, known as the James J. Beard Free Gravel Road, as petitioned for by James J. Beard et al., - in Vermillion County, Indiana, and in accordance with the rules, plans and specifications now on file in the office of said County Auditor of Vermillion County, the undersigned makes the following bid:

I will build, construct & complete the said James J. Beard Free gravel road in Kelt Township in said Vermillion County, State of Indiana, as petitioned for by James J. Beard, et al., and will furnish all labor & materials to properly complete the same, in accordance with the plans, profiles, drawings, rules & specifications for the same on file in the Office of the Auditor of said Vermillion County, & in accordance with the terms of the contract entered into with the Board of Commissioners of said Vermillion County, State of Indiana, for the construction of the same for the sum of 2945 dollars.

Respectfully submitted, Daniel M. Thomas.